1. Received from Carl Marcy, Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, a thermofax of a letter regarding International Friendship signed by [REDACTED] dated 18 December 1958 which Senator J. W. Fulbright (D., Ark.) had promised to send to the Director. This letter was forwarded to Tracy Barnes.

2. Talked with Mr. Farrell, Administrative Assistant to Congressman D. S. Saund (D., Calif.) concerning the Congressman's availability for a training seminar on 7 April. Mr. Farrell indicated that in checking the Congressman's schedule he found he was committed to make an address in California on that date and, therefore, would have to decline our invitation. This information was passed on to [REDACTED] in Training who appreciated our efforts.
